Dear Manoj Chandra Handa,

I am pleased to inform you that your paper, "Teachers' and Principals' Perceptions and Attitudes toward Educating the Gifted, and Students as Co-Researchers," submitted for consideration for the 2015 AERA Annual Meeting has been accepted. Congratulations on this accomplishment. AERA received more than 13,000 submissions this year. To ensure the highest quality papers presented at the Annual Meeting, your submission was reviewed by highly qualified reviewers serving on a review panel constituted by the SIG-Research on Giftedness, Creativity and Talent. Reviewers' comments are now available on the Online Annual Meeting Program Portal (All Academic) System for your use. To view comments, type www.aera.net into your web-browser. Click 'login' at the top of the screen, and after entering your username and password, click on 'My AERA' located at the top of the screen. Scroll down to 2015 AERA Annual Meeting and click on 'Online Program Portal'. Underneath the Submitter Menu, click on 'Read your Reviews'. Click on the 'pop-up paper review summary' to view the reviews for your submission.

The AERA meeting offers a number of session formats to feature high quality research and scholarly work. Your paper has been placed in a Paper Session titled, "Creative Teaching and Policy Implications in Gifted Education". Each format involves different expectations about the mode of presentation. The program schedule, which will include information on the date, time, and location of your session, will be available mid-February.

Please keep in mind that authors whose paper has been accepted for the AERA Annual Meeting are required to upload their full paper to the All Academic System no later than March 26, 2015. If you do not upload a full paper by the deadline, the initial submission will constitute the final paper. The All Academic System will reopen in February so that you may upload a copy of your final paper. Access to uploaded papers is available to all participants in the assigned session. Also, new this year, the deadline for program changes is March 10, 2015. This includes changes to paper titles, session titles, and authors, as well as Session Chairs and Discussants.

AERA in addition encourages authors to participate voluntarily in the AERA Online Paper Repository. You already had the option to indicate your preference upon submission of your paper. If you did not elect the option at the time of submission and would like to do so, you will be instructed on how to do so when you receive notification that the system is open to upload your final paper.

Copies of all 2015 Annual Meeting program related e-mail correspondence sent from the All Academic System are available online in your personal "Message Center." This link is available in the Submitter menu of the All Academic System once you have signed in.

Registration and housing for the 2015 Annual Meeting will open in mid December. Please plan on registering early to take advantage of the early bird rate and select the hotel of your choice.
